N.E.A.T. Trip to Rosedale Valley Road and Yorkville area

Saturday, September 18th, 2010 Time: 9:30 am to 1:00pm

Highlights:

A. Rosedale Valley Road feels like a country road which emerges right in the downtown core of Toronto. It's also a significant dividing line between the luxury of Rosedale and the relative squalor of St. Jamestown.

B. Yorkville area is a former village located right in the downtown area of Bloor and Yong St

- It's the ultimate mixture of historic and modern attractions
- It's the neighborhood of style and culture offering a unique blend of designer boutiques, fashionable restaurants, and art galleries

Meeting Point:

- Outside Castle Frank Subway station (Castle Frank Rd. and Bloor St.)
(Look for CultureLink staff with yellow N.E.A.T. t-shirts)

How to get there:

- Take the Bloor line train and get off at Castle Frank subway station

Necessities:

- Wear N.E.A.T. T-Shirts
- Water bottles and snack
- Camera
- Wear comfortable layers and dress as per the weather (layers)
- Apply sunscreen

Rain or shine, we will be there.

The tour will start exactly at 10:00am. Please be on time.
